THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Have been built and actually delivered to retail buyers since August 1, 1916. The se figures—320,817—represent the actual number of cars manufactured by us since August 1st, 1916, and delivered by our agents to retail buyers. This unusual fall and winter demand for FORD cars makes it necessary for us to confine the distribution of cars only to those agents who have orders for immediate delivery to retail customers, rather than to permit any agent to stock cars in anticipation of later spring sales.

We are issuing this notice to intending buyers that they may protect themselves against delay or disappointment in securing FORD cars. If, therefore, you are planning to purchase a FORD car, we advise you to place your order and take delivery now.

IMMEDIATE ORDERS WILL HAVE PROMPT ATTENTION.

Delay in buying at this time may cause you to wait several months.

Enter your order to-day for immediate delivery with our authorized FORD agent listed below and don't be disappointed later on.

cook the dinner, answer the bell half a dozen times, get rid of a neighbor who has dropped in, tend to a sick baby, tie up the cut finger of a two-year-old, gather up the playthings of a four-year-old, tie up the head of a six-year-old on skates, and get an eight-year-old ready for school, to say nothing of sweeping, cleaning, etc. A woman with all these to contend with may claim it a privilege to look and feel a little tired sometimes, and a word of sympathy would not be too much to expect from the man, who, during the honeymoon, wouldn't let her carry as much as a sunshade.

The evening is the hour when crafty Satan preaches most eloquently. It is also the hour when he can gather the largest and most attentive audience. In our great cities Satan's churches are crowded every evening. But, fortunately, the evening hour is also the hour in which the good angel can gather the largest audience and he who would haffle Satan's influence must preach in the evening. The evening is the hour when the protesting power of home is greatest; it is the hour when its protection is most needed.

A mother who really has the good of her children at heart, will teach them as soon as they can walk not only to help themselves, but to help others. She will not bring them up under the impression that they are unfledged angels, but dear, wilful, little mortals who must learn they came to serve and not to rule. Self sacrifice is a good quality in a mother, but it is possible to carry that spirit too far: it is possible to make sacrifice which are not only uncalculated for and not necessary, but really harmful in their effects.

In the home all that is characteristically feminine in woman unfolds and flourishes. Home without woman is a mansion, for woman makes home, and home is what she makes it. If she is illiterate, her home partakes of this quality: if she is immoral her home cannot be the abode of virtue; if she is coarse, refinement does not dwell where she resides. If she is cultured, pure, refined, those qualities will characterize the home which she creates. The higher the degree of her culture, her purity, her refinement, the more will these qualities characterize the home of which she is the center.

IN MEMORY.

In sad, but loving remembrance of my friend and cousin, Mrs. Nolda M. Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Moore, and wife of Jay N. Thompson, who departed this life Thursday, Feb. 1, 1917. Nolda's illness was short and great, but she bore it with patience. She was converted in January, 1916 in a revival held at Ledocia by Revs. Booth, Moore and Spencer. About a year before Nolda's death her mother was taken from this world of sorrow and pain to Calvary's happy shore, leaving in Nolda's care four small children to which she was a mother. It can truly be said, in September, 1916, Mary was taken to dwell with mother. Besides the three small sisters and brothers she left one sweet little boy baby of her own, who was only six months old. Why she was taken it is hard for us to understand. God knows best. His will be done, not ours.

Friends be ready to meet her where parting will never come and all in joy and happiness. E. H.

James Crouch, who killed Sampson Willis at Salt Lick several years ago while acting as Marshal, was convicted in the Bath Circuit Court at Owensboro and sentenced to the penitentiary for from twenty to twenty-one years. It was the second conviction. Crouch was convicted before and given from seventeen to eighteen years, but the case was reversed. The killing occurred over the arrest of Willis' son.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

A Column Dedicated To Tired Mothers As They Join The Home Circle At Evening Tide.

What Is Home.

Ask the above question to any person you chance to meet, who has wandered from home, and in nine cases out of ten the answer will be that Home is a green spot in memory, a center about which the grandest recollections of his grief-oppressed heart cling with all tenderness of youth's first love. Home has an influence which is stronger than death. It is law to our hearts and binds us with a spell which neither time nor change can break. Not merely friends and kindred render that home so dear, but the very hills and streams throw a charm around the place of one's nativity. It is no wonder the grandest harps are tuned to sing of "Home Sweet Home." No songs are sweeter than those heard among the boughs that share our parent's dwelling, when some evening hour found us gay as the birds that warbled o'er us. We may wander away and mingle with the world's strife, from new associates and fancy we have forgotten the land of our birth; but as we listen perhaps to the summer wind, the remembrances of other days come over the soul and fancy bears us back to the childhood days and home. We may find climes as beautiful and friends as dear, but they will not usurp the place of "Home, Sweet Home."

Work Will Not Hurt.

It was Robert J. Burdette, who said: My son, you have to work, whether you handle pick or pen, a wheelbarrow or a set of books, ringing an auction bell or writing funny things, you must work. If you look around, you will see the men who are the most able to live the rest of their days without work are the men who work the hardest.

Don't be afraid of killing yourself with overwork. They die sometimes, but it's because they quit work at 5 p. m. and don't go home until 2 a. m. It is the interval that kills, my son. The work gives you an appetite for your meals, it lends solidity to your slumbers, and gives you a perfect and graceful appreciation of a holiday.

There are young men who do not work, but the world is not proud of them. It does not know their names even; it simply speaks of them as "old Soandso's boys." The great, busy world doesn't know that they are there. So find out what you want to be and do, take off your coat and make a dust in the world. The busier you are the less harm you are apt to get into, the sweeter and happier your holidays, and the better satisfied will the world be with you.

Appreciation.

I always look forward to the coming of your paper with much anticipation, as to what good thing the Home Circle will have for us this week, and am never disappointed. You seem to have an inexhaustible supply of wholesome truth for all in the home—old and young. Every phase in life receives its illumination from your pen and somehow life seems a bit brighter, the atmosphere purer and hope, stronger after absorbing the thoughts you present and in appreciation of all this and many other excellent features, I write these lines.—A Western Reader.

If men would remember that women can't always be smiling, who have to
